7 13 Sec. 17. Sections 626.9, 626.20, 639.28, 639.70, and

7 15 EXPLANATION

7 16 This bill relates to judicial branch practices and 7 17 procedures including but not limited to adoption petitions, 7 18 clerk of the district court duties and recordkeeping affecting 7 19 real estate, the confidentiality of arrest warrants, and 7 20 notices by the department of corrections to the clerk of the 7 21 district court.

7 22 The amendment to Code section 600.3 requires a petitioner
7 23 to file a separate adoption petition for each person being 7 24 adopted.

7 25 The amendment to Code section 602.8103 permits the clerk of 7 26 the district court to destroy, without prior court approval or 7 27 reproduction, a complaint, trial information, or uniform
7 28 citation and complaint related to a parking violation.

7 29 The amendment to Code section 602.8104 eliminates the 7 30 requirement that the clerk of the district court keep an 7 31 encumbrance book that contains a statement of the levy of each 7 32 attachment on real estate entered by the sheriff. The 7 33 amendments to Code sections 321A.24, 602.8102, 617.13, 629.3, 7 34 and 639.64, and the repeal of Code sections 626.9, 626.20, 7 35 639.28, and 639.70, conform the Code sections to the 8 1 elimination of the encumbrance book in Code section 602.8104.

8 2 The amendment to Code section 602.8105 waives the filing
8 3 and docketing fee and any court costs for multiple adoption 8 4 petitions filed at the same time by the same petitioner under 8 5 Code section 600.3.

8 6 The amendment to Code section 615.1 provides that a
8 7 judgment in an action for the foreclosure of a real estate
8 8 mortgage is "unenforceable" after the expiration of two years,
8 9 unless a bankruptcy is filed. Current law provides that a
8 10 judgment in an action for foreclosure of a real estate
8 11 mortgage is "extinguished" after two years unless a bankruptcy
8 12 is filed.

8 13 The amendment to Code section 617.10 permits the clerk of 8 14 the district court to keep the index of petitions affecting 8 15 real estate with card files, microfilm, microfiche, or in an 8 16 electronic format. The amendment to Code section 617.10 also 8 17 enhances the readability of the section.

8 18 The amendment to Code section 624.23 concerns the 8 19 disclosure of certain court records relating to judgment liens
8 20 when the case filed has been sealed or made confidential.
8 21 Under the bill, the following records are considered a public
8 22 record even if the court file has been sealed or made
8 23 confidential: the name of the court, the title of the action, 8 24 the case number, the amount of the judgment, the name of the 8 25 judgment creditor, the affidavit designating the agent and 8 26 office of the creditor, and any full or partial satisfaction
8 27 of the judgment.

8 28 The amendment to Code section 654.17 relates to the 8 29 rescission of a foreclosure action. Under the bill, if a 8 30 foreclosure action is rescinded by a judgment creditor, and 8 31 the original mortgage and mortgage note are in the court file,
8 32 the mortgagor shall pay a $25 fee to the clerk of the district
8 33 court prior to receiving the original mortgage and mortgage
8 34 note from the clerk.

8 35 The amendment to Code section 804.29 provides that a bench
9 1 warrant issued by the court for failure to appear is not 9 2 confidential if it is contained with information related to 9 3 securing an arrest warrant. Current law provides that all 9 4 information filed with the court for the purpose of securing 9 5 an arrest warrant is confidential.

9 6 New Code section 904.119 requires the department of 9 7 corrections to notify the clerk of the district court in the 9 8 offender's county of conviction of the date of discharge from 9 9 a correctional institution or the date of release on parole,
9 10 and the subsequent date of discharge from parole. The notice 9 11 shall also include the name, date of birth, court case numbers 9 12 from the sentencing order committing the offender to the 9 13 department of corrections, and if known the new address of the 9 14 offender.

9 15 The amendment to Code section 904.602 permits the 9 16 department of corrections to release information to the clerk 9 17 of the district court to implement the notice provisions of 9 18 new Code section 904.119.

9 19 Code section 674.11 is repealed, eliminating the provision
9 20 requiring the clerk of the district court to keep a 9 21 change-of-name record in regard to changes of legal names by 9 22 petitions to the court.
